ANTRIM COUNTY settled off the rail, continued outside while circling foes around the second turn, rallied determinedly and got up late. GENTLEMAN CHESTER between foes much of the trip, loomed nearing mid stretch, then was outfinished. GENERAL CHARLEY forwardly placed outside the leaders, took over in upper stretch, then saved the show. MASTER MIZZEN inside to drive, eased out and lacked a response. CASTLE BERRY ROAD raced wide. TRACKERMAN well back early, angled out for the drive and improved position. POINT GOLD forwardly placed, could make little impact. UNPAID CRUSADE alternated for the lead to nearing the drive, then weakened. STONEHOUSE close up, bid outside UNPAID CRUSADE, gained the edge around the second turn, then gave way. GESTE devoid speed, rallied outside but was not a factor. OUR LUCKY SOX set the pace off the rail to nearing the second turn, then stopped.
